THE PREVENTION OF CORRUPTION ACT, 2006 (1949 A.D.)
(Act No. XIII of 2006)

(Promulgated by Shree Yuvraj under section 5 of the Jammu & Kashmir Constitution Act, 1996 and published in the Government Gazette dated 25th Maghar, 2006).

An Act for more effective prevention of bribery and corruption.

Whereas it is expedient to make more effective provisions of the prevention of bribery and corruption in the State.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers reserved under section 5 of the Jammu & Kashmir Constitution Act, 1996 read with the proclamation issued by His Highness and published in the extraordinary issue of the Government Gazette dated 7th Har, 2006, Yuvraj Shree Karan Singh Ji Bahadur is pleased to enact as follows :

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Prevention of Corruption Act, 2006 (1949 AD).

(2) It extends to the whole of the Jammu & Kashmir State and it applies (also) to State Subjects and servants of the State wherever they may be.

(3) It shall come into force from the date it is published in the Government Gazette.

2. Interpretation.—For the purpose of this Act the expression 'public servant' means a public servant as defined in Section 21 of the State Ranbir Panal Code and shall include :—

- (a) a person who is or has been a member of either House of State Legislature or a member (including Minister of State) of the Council of Ministers ;
- (b) every person who is or has been under the employment of Government whether on permanent, temporary or work-charge basis.
- (c) every officer, servant or member (by whatever name called) of a Corporation or of a corporate or other body which is established by or under an Act of the State Legislature or of Parliament in force in the State.

3. Certain offences to be cognizable.—An offence punishable under section 5 of this Act or under section 161 or section 165 or section 165-A or section 167-A of the State Ranbir Penal Code, Samvat 1989, shall be deemed to be a cognizable offence for the purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989 notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained therein :

Provided that no Police Officer below the rank of the (X X X) Deputy Superintendent of Police shall investigate any such offence without the order of a Magistrate of the first class or make any arrest thereof without a warrant :

Provided further that if an officer of the (Vigilance Organization) of and above the rank of a Sub-Inspector of Police is specially authorized in writing by an officer of (Vigilance Organization) not below the rank of an Assistant Superintendent of Police to investigate such offence. Such officer may investigate the offence so specified in the order of authorisation. But such officer shall not be competent to arrest any person during such investigation, unless a Police officer not below the rank of a (Deputy Superintendent of Police) authorizes such arrest under section 56 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Samvat 1989)

4. Presumption where public servant accepts gratification other than illegal remuneration.—(1) Where in any trial of an offence punishable under section 161 or section 165 of the Ranbir Penal Code 1989 (or an offence referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 5 of this Act punishable under sub-section (2) thereof, it is proved that an accused person has accepted or obtained, or has agreed to accept or attempted to obtain for himself or for any valuable thing from any person. It shall be presumed unless the contrary is proved that the accepted or obtained, or agreed to accept or attempted to obtain that gratification or that valuable thing, as the case may be, as a motive or reward such as its mentioned in the said section 161, or as the case may be without consideration or for a consideration which he knows to be inadequate.

(2) Where in any trial of an offence punishable under section 165-A of the Ranbir Penal Code, 1989 (XII of 1989) 'for under clause (ii) of sub-section (3) of section 5 of this Act, it is proved that any gratification (other than legal remuneration) or any valuable thing has been given or offered to be given or attempted to be given by an accused person, it shall be presumed. Unless the contrary is proved, that he gave or offered to give or attempted to give that gratification or that valuable thing, as the case may be, as a motive or reward such as is mentioned in section 161 of the Ranbir Penal Code, or, as the case may be, without consideration or for a consideration which he knows to be inadequate.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Court may decline to draw the presumption referred to in either of the said sub-sections. If the gratification or thing aforesaid is in its opinion so trivial that no inference of corruption may fairly be drawn.

5. Criminal misconduct.—(1) Public servant is said to commit the offence of criminal misconduct :—

- (a) If he habitually accepts or obtains or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain from any person for himself or for any other person, any gratification (other than legal remuneration) as motive or reward such as is mentioned in section 161 of the State Ranbir Penal Code, Samvat 1989, or
- (b) If he habitually accepts or obtains or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain for himself or for any other person, any valuable thing without consideration or for a consideration which he knows to be inadequate from any person whom he knows to have been or to be or to be likely to be concerned in any proceeding or business transacted or about to be transacted by him or having any connection with the official functions of himself or of any public servant to whom he is subordinate, or from any person whom he knows to be interested in or related to the persons so concerned ; or
- (c) If he dishonestly or fraudulently misappropriates or otherwise converts for his own use any property entrusted to him or under his control as a public servant or allows any other person so to do ; or
- (d) If he , by corrupt or illegal means or by otherwise abusing his position as public servant, obtains for himself or for any other person any valuable thing or pecuniary advantage ; or

- (e) If he or any person on his behalf is in possession or has, at any time during the period of his office, been in possession, for which the public servant cannot satisfactorily account, of pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to his known sources of income.

Explanation.—For the purpose of clause (e) the expression “property includes any interest in property, movable or immovable, and the proceeds of sale thereof and any money or investment which for the time being, represents the proceeds of sale.

(2) Any public servant who commits criminal misconduct shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less one year but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine.—

(3) Whoever commits—

- (i) An offence punishable under section 162 or section 163 of the State Ranbir Penal Code, Samvat 1989; or
(ii) An offence punishable under section 165-A or section 167-A of the State Ranbir Penal Code, Samvat 1989;

shall be punishable with imprisonment for a terms which shall not be less than one year but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine :

Provided that the Court may, for any special reasons recorded in writing impose a sentence of imprisonment of less than one year but not less than six months.

(4) Whoever attempts to commit an offence referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

(5) Where a sentence of fine is imposed under sub-section (2) sub-section (3), the court in fixing the amount of fine shall take in consideration the amount or the value of the property, if any, which the accused person has obtained by committing the offence or, where the conviction is for an offence referred to in clause (e) of sub-section (1), the pecuniary resources or property referred to in that clause for which the accused person is unable to account satisfactorily.

(6) The provisions of this section shall not be deemed to be in derogation of, any other law for the time being in force, and any provisions herein shall exempt any public servant from any liability, civil or criminal, apart from this section, be instituted against him.
