SOP for Passes for permissible activities under MHA's Order issued vide No. 40-3/2020-DM-I(A) dated 15/04/2020 w.e.f 20th April, 2020

General Instructions

1. This SOP is issued for standardising the process of issuing passes to allow activities permitted from 20.04.2020 under the MHA's revised guidelines vide No. 40-3/2020-DM-I(A) dated 15.04.2020.

2. The Passes shall be issued only for the activities allowed under the MHA/JK State Executive Committee orders/guidelines/instructions.

3. This SOP shall not be applicable for permitting activities in Red Zones/Hotspot/Containment Zones. In such areas, the SOP already issued vide JK SEC Order No. 38-JK (DMRRR) of 2020 dated 14.04.2020 shall remain valid. Any area subsequently declared as Red-Zone shall also be governed by Red Zone SOP, mentioned above.

4. There shall be no inter-district movement of individuals except after obtaining Passes from the Deputy Commissioner concerned. It shall be issued only for rare exigencies like medical emergencies (on the recommendation of CMO/Medical Superintendent of district hospital) or death of immediate relation in family or for activities permitted through instructions/SOPs notified by JK SEC/GAD for Government employees.

5. There shall be no inter-province movement of individuals except after obtaining Passes from the Divisional Commissioner concerned. It shall be issued only for rare exigencies like medical emergencies (on the recommendation of CMO/Medical Superintendent of district hospital) or death of immediate relation in family or for activities permitted through instructions/SOPs notified by JK SEC.

6. There shall be no inter-State/UT movement of individuals except after obtaining Passes from the Divisional Commissioner concerned. It shall be issued only for rare exigencies like medical emergencies (on the recommendation of Principal Medical College) or death of immediate relation in family or for activities permitted through instructions/SOPs notified by JK SEC. It shall be issued only after consulting the nodal officer in-charge of Lakhanpur (Commissioner/Secretary to Government, PHE/I&FC Department).
7. If a critical patient is being moved in an Ambulance without a pass, due to extreme emergency, such vehicle should not be stopped merely on the ground that it is without a valid Pass. The Officer in charge of the checking point/naka is expected to exercise his wisdom to allow such movement even if it is interstate/province/district.

8. All other Passes shall be issued after following the procedure given in Part-A of this SOP. Concerned Heads of Department (Directors/Chief Engineers etc.) shall send recommendations to the DC for issuing passes strictly as per SOPs issued by JK SEC. Any violation on part of any authority will attract penal action.

9. All the passes already issued by the Deputy Commissioners for daily movement shall remain valid till the extended lockdown period as well. However, the DCs may issue general or specific orders extending or revoking the validity of any category/type of passes, as deemed appropriate.

Instructions for Movement of Goods Carriers

10. Passes are not required for movement of Goods carrier (registered as such) within the UT of J&K, plying with one driver and one cleaner, and which is in possession of valid driving licence and valid bills/Challan or certificate of dispatcher/supplier with his phone number.

11. Documents of inter-state Goods carrier entering J&K will be verified at Lakhanpur and issued medical clearance permissions, as per the existing procedure. The long distance trucks may be permitted with two drivers and one cleaner. Needless to say, both drivers should possess valid driving licences.

12. The patients, drivers and cleaners entering Jammu province from Lakhanpur or Kashmir province via Jawahar Tunnel/Mughal Road shall undergo medical screening and pass through disinfectant tunnels installed at those places.

13. The incoming patients to J&K, via Lakhanpur, will be facilitated, as per the existing procedure of quarantine, by the Nodal Officer In-charge, Lakhanpur.
